

Grupo Aval Acciones y Valores S.A. wishes to inform that, in line with the relevant information published on May 29, 2013, the company filed Registration Form F-1 with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission today. This may be used in a possible public offering of the company's preferred shares, or of securities representative of the same, exclusively on foreign capital markets.

Consistent with the previously published information, the company reiterates that the potential public offering is subject to approval by the company's General Shareholders' Meeting, and to the fulfillment of all applicable legal requirements. It must also be considered favorable to proceed with the issuance in view of prevailing international capital market conditions.
